

Passavant Energy & Environment GmbH plans and designs individual solutions for plant construction in the field of water and wastewater technology worldwide and supplies process, machine and automation technology as well as complete turnkey systems.

We are looking for a

Project Manager (f/m/d) Field of Plant Engineering (Wastewater Industry / Wastewater Treatment)

to join our newly developing Tunis Branch office.

The focus of this position is the construction of a wastewater plant in a holistic process.

Requirement

- Bachelor of Engineering, preferably in Civil
- 10 years of experience (with minimum 3 years in managerial level) in building and infrastructure constructions, preferably in the field of wastewater treatment plants
- Strong ability to communicate in French / Speaking, Reading and Writing. In addition to Arabic and/or English language

Main Function

- To execute a given project contract in accordance with the contract terms, within the approved budget, set time schedule and in accordance with the company policies
Ensure compliance with QA/QC & HSE policies all to the customer's satisfaction

Duties & Responsibilities

- Planning of the project "execution and resources"
- Manages day-to-day operational aspects of a project and scope
- Execute the project as per contract condition within the time specified
- Assist with senior management to prepare project management plan which shall be use as road map to execute the project
- Keep the Manager of Projects informed of problems and progress and seeking his assistance on problems which cannot be resolved on Project
- Ensure that the client is properly billed and those payments are received in a timely manner for the project
- Monitor Material Procurement activities for the project under his control and ensure that all materials are submitted, approved, ordered and delivered in accordance with project time schedule; and coordinate between different sections
- Facilitates team and client meetings effectively

PASSAVANT Energy & Environment

- To liaise with the consultant/ client for claims and variations to the contract
- To liaise with third parties (organizations and departments)

Authorities

- To manage the implementation of sub-contracts
- To secure services from the various departments of the company in their respective fields of competence

Skills

- Management skills, planning and computer knowledge (Microsoft Word & Excel), communications skills.

If you feel addressed, please send us your application documents include cover letter, curriculum vitae and certificates in the English language.

PASSAVANT Energy & Environment GmbH
Hahnstrasse 31-35
60528 Frankfurt / Germany

If you have any questions about the vacancy, please contact:
Human Resources / Phone number: +49 (69) 94 74 15-0
E-Mail: Jobs@passavant-ee.com / Homepage: www.passavant-ee.com